PGA TOUR Wives Association hosts These Kids Can Play Under the Big Top!
*Presented by EverBank Benefiting Community PedsCare

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FLA. – On Tuesday, May 6, the PGA TOUR Wives Association (“PTWA”) will host children and families from Community PedsCare and Wolfson Children’s Hospital for a fun-filled, circus-themed morning at Stadium Village at THE PLAYERS Championship, 9:30 to 11 a.m.

“These Kids Can Play Under the Big Top! Presented by EverBank benefiting Community PedsCare” will feature arts and crafts, clowns, face painting as well as a visit from zoo animals courtesy of the Jacksonville Zoo and Gardens. Tabitha Furyk, wife of Jim Furyk, is the chairperson of this event for the PGA TOUR Wives Association, and many other TOUR players and their spouses will be in attendance to host and interact with the children and their families. Each of the children in attendance will be receive books donated by Books-A-Go-Go.

This is the sixth year the PTWA has hosted an event for the children and their families at Stadium Village and approximately 75 families are expected to attend. The PGA TOUR Wives Association was incorporated in 1988 by wives of professional golfers on the PGA TOUR. Since inception, the Association has raised more than $5.5 million through its charitable events and volunteer service projects.
